

Corkran Makes Great Score, but It Comes Too Late---Women on Links

DYER IS LEADER IN BALTIMORE TOURNAMENT

Young Montclair Golfer Wins Medal With 79—Carter and Lyon Play.

B. W. CORKRAN IS SECOND

BALTIMORE, May 8.—B. W. Dyer of Montclair, N. J., the Pennsylvania champion, was medalist today in the qualifying round of the sixth annual Metropolitan Golf tournament of the Baltimore Country Club at Roland Park, turning in a card of 79 for the eighteen holes. The Jersey man played at the top of his game in both rounds and made several remarkable recoveries from the rough that brought forth rounds of applause from the large crowd. His driving was good, while his work on the greens was equally as good. Mr. Dyer, the local champion, experienced a little trouble on his home turf, but finished one stroke in hand over a card of 80. Phil Carter, the Metropolitan junior champion, had a card of 82, while George S. Lyon, the veteran Canadian golfer, was tied with a card of 84. Although Corkran failed to win the medal in the qualifying round he gave out the most remarkable exhibition of golf seen in the city for some time. When he played the course in a practice match in the afternoon in 68 strokes, eleven less than the winner of the qualifying round, he made the record for the course, having made it last year in 67, but as the greens and holes have been remodeled and the course is much more difficult, his score of today is considered better than the record. The recent rains made the course exceptionally good, and the large crowds in recent years participated in the qualifying round. The first round of match play will begin tomorrow. There are five sixteen.

MISS STIRLING LEADS FIELD

Makes an 88 in Qualifying Round of Southern Championship.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., May 8.—The sixth annual championship of the Women's Southern Golf Association began this morning with an eighteen hole qualifying round on the links of the Chattanooga Golf and Country Club. Miss Alice W. Stirling of Atlanta, the present champion, began the defense of her title by leading the field with an 88. Although she was not at her best, the twenty-year-old titleholder played steady golf all the way and was the only one of the eight girls to make the round in less than 90. Her nearest rival was four strokes away. The women golfers seemed to find the Chattanooga course much more difficult than the one under the 100 mark and 105 groups in the championship division. Miss L. Watkins, the president of the association, speaking in the afternoon, said that the course was much more difficult than the one under the 100 mark and 105 groups in the championship division. WOMEN MEET AGAIN IN TEAM MATCHES

Play Is Resumed in Jersey Section of Metropolitan District Series.

ENGLEWOOD BEGINS WELL

Play was resumed yesterday by the New Jersey teams in the series of matches being conducted by the Women's Metropolitan Golf Association and Baltusrol, Westfield, Montclair, Hackensack and Englewood scored victories. Cranford and Hollywood tied.

Each team played yesterday the team which it met last Wednesday, the scene of the match being the only change.

Baltusrol beat Plainfield, this time at Baltusrol. Montclair scored its second victory over Forest Hill, and Hackensack also became a double winner over Arcola.

Englewood, which won by default last week, visited Glen Ridge, and headed by Mrs. J. S. Irving, who seems to have deserted her Westchester club, beat the Glen Ridge women 6 to 2. Westfield defaulted to Norwood a week ago, but on its home course yesterday won 4 to 1.

The next series of matches will be played on Thursday. The summaries of the five matches played:
